We want to assure colleagues planning to attend any upcoming Cold Spring Harbor Laboratory (CSHL) meetings or courses that safety and security are our top priorities. At this time, all CSHL meetings and courses are proceeding as planned. CSHL is closely monitoring the COVID-19 situation as it evolves, following all CDC recommendations and guidelines. (https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/index.html)

CSHL has taken the following actions to date:

- Participants from CDC Warning Level 3 countries (currently China & South Korea) have been informed not to attend upcoming CSHL meetings or courses unless providing certification that they have exited those countries 15 days prior to the event. Participants may access the conference via videostream.

The following apply to all participants currently registered for upcoming CSHL events:

- Participants on COVID-19-associated leave of absence or self-quarantine should not attend.
- Participants who have traveled within or transited through CDC Warning Level 3 countries (currently China & South Korea) within two weeks prior to the CSHL event should not attend.
- Participants who have traveled within or transited through CDC Advisory Level 2 countries (currently Japan, Italy & Iran) within two weeks prior to the CSHL event should monitor their health and determine whether they pose an increased risk of transmitting COVID-19 to others, and cancel accordingly.
- Participants who are unwell should not attend.

Participants cancelling for any of the above reasons are eligible for full or partial refund of fees paid, depending on the length of time between the date of cancellation and the first day of the meeting. Please enquire via email to meetings@cshl.edu

Participant preparedness and well-being at CSHL (see WHO guidelines):

- All participants are advised to practice good personal hygiene, including washing one’s hands regularly and avoiding touching one’s mouth or face.
- Avoid shaking hands with other participants, and consider adopting alternative greetings.
